

MISS ANNA M. YAGER DIES THIS MORNING

Prominent Decatur Woman Dies Today

Miss Anna M. Yager, a member of a prominent Decatur family, died in her sleep at 10 o'clock this morning at the Yager home, 218 South Second street, following an extended illness. The daughter of the late Leopold and Christine Wall Yager, the deceased was born in Tiffin, Ohio, on September 28, 1863. In 1865, her parents came to this city. Her father was for many years one of the leading furniture dealers and cabinet makers here. Miss Yager made her home with her brothers, two of whom survive. They are, John and Leo Yager, the latter being the president of the Citizens Telephone company. Two brothers, Herman and Louis Yager, preceded her in death. A lifelong member of St. Mary's Catholic church, Miss Yager was (cut off)

Contributed by JC