

News-Sentinel, The (Fort Wayne, IN) - Saturday, July 3, 2004

Decatur IN United States

DELBERT H. FUELLING, 73, of Decatur, died Friday, July 2, 2004, 1:30 p.m., at Adams Memorial Hospital, after suffering a stroke at home earlier in the day. He retired from farming and from Dana Corp. after 42 years of service. He served his country during the Korean conflict, from 1951 to 1953, and was a member of St. Peter Lutheran Church, Fuelling. Surviving are his wife, Eldora (Ewell) Fuelling of Decatur; daughter, Mrs. Terry A. (Beth A.) Alspaugh of Decatur; son, Terry W. (Denise) Fuelling of Wixom, Mich.; daughters, Mrs. Christopher (Cindy K.) Kortenbar, Mrs. Kevin (Lori L.) Lee, both of Decatur; brother, Howard Fuelling of Decatur; sisters, Mrs. Edward (Doris) Morrissette of Papillion, Neb., Marcella McIntosh of New Haven; and six grandchildren. Service is 11 a.m. Tuesday, with visitation one hour prior, in the St. Peter Lutheran Church, Fuelling. Visitation is from 3 to 6 and 7 to 9 p.m. Monday, in the Zwick and Jahn Funeral Home, Decatur. Military graveside service conducted by the Adams Post 43 Color Guard at St. Peter Lutheran Church Cemetery, Fuelling. Preferred memorials to St. Peter Lutheran Church, Fuelling, or the donor's choice. For complete obituary information and condolences visit www.zwickjahn.com