ANOTHER DEATH

Mrs. John C. Cowan Died This Morning

Been Ill For Many Years

The Funeral Will Occur Thursday Morning with Interment in Mt. Taber Cemetery

Mrs. John C. Cowan, a well known woman residing near Pleasant Mills, died this morning at an early hour, after an illness of several years duration, death resulting from chronic troubles. She was fifty-six years old and was raised in St. Marys township, her maiden name having been Amy Dailey. She was well known in this city and was beloved and held in high esteem by all who came in touch with her and her many kind acts and deeds of charity will be sadly missed. The funeral services will be held Thursday morning at ten o'clock, sun time, at the home, and interment will be made in the Mt. Taber cemetery. She leaves a husband, several children and a host of relatives to mourn their loss.
