

Decatur Democrat, Adams Co, IN; May 5, 1910

Mrs. Joseph J. Dailey of Blue Creek township, a life long resident of the county, died Saturday evening about 6 o'clock after but a day's serious illness. The announcement of the sudden death of this most estimable lady comes as a most sorrowful shock to all who knew her. While Mrs. Dailey had not been in the best of health so great was her vitality and indomitable will, strength and courage and good cheer, that she never gave up nor complained and last Saturday arose as usual and busied herself with the preparing of breakfast. When the hired man came in from doing his morning chores he was horrified to find her lying on the floor in spasms. She never regained consciousness, dying about 6 o'clock that evening. The attack was acute Bright's disease. Mrs. Dailey was Miss Samantha Robinson, a daughter of Abraham and Nancy Robinson. She was born fifty-eight years ago last December 15th on a farm east of this city and after her marriage to J. J. Dailey in 1873 they moved to the farm in Blue Creek township, where they have lived continually since. They were the parents of thirteen children, one of who died in infancy. Those with the father surviving are Almira Hower, Tennessee; Nannie Gates, near Steele; Esaias, Washington; Mary Colter, Bobo; Mabel, teaching in Michigan; Viola, and three twins - Leira and Leona, Wildas and Wilma, Staunton and Stanley. Mrs. Dailey also leaves four brothers - Isaac, Jackson, Jasper and Darius Robinson, and one sister, Mrs. George Tricker.

Funeral services for Mrs. Dailey was held from the M. E. church at Bobo probably Wednesday afternoon, though the exact time has not been arranged, pending word as to the arrival of several of the children, who live at a great distance.
