Was ill a year - of hardening of arteries and complications
71 years of age

The final summons came Sunday noon for Mrs. Mary Cowan Falk, widow of Joel Falk, after a year's illness of hardening of the arteries and other complications. Death occurred at her home in Bobo, where she had been cared for the past year or more by her two nieces, the Misses Fanny and Flossie Cowan.

Mrs. Cowan was seventy-one years of age. She was married nineteen years ago to Joel Falk, his death occurring five years ago.

Brothers of the deceased are John C. Cowan, of Pleasant Mills and James Cowan, of Bobo. A sister, Mrs. ? Martin lives in Wisconsin.

Mrs. Falk was the step mother of Mrs. Dan Erwin and John Falk of this city.

The funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock at Bobo.
