

William John Heath, son of John and Ellen Heath, was born July 10, 1861, and departed this life March 28, 1915, aged 53 years, 6 months and 18 days. He was united in marriage to Irene D. Jackson November 20, in the year 1890. She departed this life in 1894. To this union was born one son, Floyd Heath, who departed this life when four months old. Then in the year 1895, the fourth day of June, he was united in marriage to Lavina Shaffer. To this union were born five children, of whom all survive. He leaves to mourn their loss a wife, three sons, two daughters, two brothers and two sisters. He has gone to join his father, mother, two brothers and three sisters, who have gone on before. He leaves a host of relatives and other friends to mourn his departure. He was a faithful helper in the United Brethren church, although he never united with any denomination, but always lent a helping hand to a that needed. In his short suffering we could not say what his communion was with God. But with - he could not explain, but seemed to be patient and endure his suffering. He was a loving and affectionate husband and father.

“Oh we miss him, how we miss him,”
God has called another brother.
One we loved with heart so dear;
One who’s always been a father,
And would always share our fears,
Always thought of us in trouble,
Always taught us to do right;
Now he’s gone, our dearest brother,
And we’re left to face the fight.
Dearest, dearest heavenly Father,
Be our true and faithful guide,
Guide us till we reach that mansion,
To our home beyond the skies.
