JOHN W. KRICK DIES SATURDAY

Former Resident Of Adams County Expires At Home In Fort Wayne

John W. Krick, 47, former resident of Adams county and a nephew of Henry Krick of this city, died at 5:15 o'clock Saturday afternoon at his home in Fort Wayne, after an illness of Bright's disease. Mr. Krick had been an employee of the Pennsylvania railroad company for twenty years. He was a member of the B. of L. E. and F. and of the Red Men's lodge. He is survived by his wife, Anna; one son, Collins; two daughters, Mrs. Viola Hall and Pearl Krick, and one grandchild, all of Ft. Wayne. His father, Joshua Krick, also survives, besides many relatives in Decatur and this county.

Short funeral services will be held at noon Wednesday from the home in Fort Wayne, after which the body will be taken to Bobo where services will be held at 2 o'clock from the United Brethren church. Burial will take place at the Mt. Tabor cemetery. The Decatur Red Men will give their ritualistic funeral ceremony.
