

Commercial Review, The (Portland, IN) - Monday, July 23, 2007

Lora R. Martin, 45, Decatur, died Sunday at Adams Memorial Hospital in Decatur.

She worked for the South Adams School Corporation.

Born on May 12, 1962, in Wilshire, Ohio, to John and Norma (Carpenter) Nichols, she was married on Sept. 18, 1987, to Marty L. Martin, who survives.

She was employed by South Adams High School in the janitorial service department.

Surviving in addition to her husband are a son; her mother; three sisters; two brothers; and three grandchildren.

Private family services will be held at Mt. Tabor Cemetery, rural Decatur, with Pastor Jeff Haines officiating. Visitation will also be private.

Memorials may be sent to Cancer Services of Northeast Indiana, to the family or flowers may be sent to Zwick and Jahn Funeral Home, 520 N. Second St., Decatur, who is in charge of the arrangements.