

News Banner, Wells County, Indiana; May 25, 1989

Bluffton Resident, Joe H. Niblick, 63, Dies Suddenly

A resident of Bluffton, Joe H. Niblick, 63, died unexpectedly at 11:45 p.m. Wednesday at his residence.

Born April 20, 1926, he was a son of Dorsey and Alice Leist Niblick. His marriage to the former Betty Death, who survives, took place in Decatur March 14, 1953.

Mr. Niblick was a retired painter and carpenter. He had also been employed at the state and county highway departments.

In addition to the wife, survivors include three sons, Richard J. Niblick, Frederick L. Niblick and Larry L. Niblick, all of Bluffton; and five grandchildren.

Friends may call from 3 to 5 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. Friday at Haggard and Armes Funeral Home in Decatur, where services will be conducted by Rev. Robert Shook at 3 p.m. Saturday.

Burial will follow in Mt. Tabor Cemetery.

Contributed by Karin King