DEATH CLAIMS IRVIN SHAFFER

"Tim" Shaffer, City Employe, Dies This Morning At Home

Irvin "Tim" Shaffer, 62, city street department employe, died at 10 o'clock this morning at his home, corner St. Marys and Walnuts streets, following a six weeks' illness.

Mr. Shaffer suffered from several complications and little hope was extended for his recovery.

Born in St. Marys township, Adams county, February 25, 1873, Mr. Shaffer was a life long resident of this county. He moved to Decatur about 18 years ago. He formerly was employed at the old Holland-St. Louis sugar factory.

Seven years ago Mr. Shaffer became an employe of the city street department. He was a faithful worker.

Mr. Shaffer was a member of the Loyal Order of Moose of the city.

Besides the widow, Mr. Shaffer is survived by three children from a first marriage, namely Mrs. Agnes Archer, Pleasant Mills; Mrs. Aletha Hahn, Muncie; Mrs. Lucile Schuster, Kenton, Ohio and two children by his second marriage, Mrs. James Smith and Cecil Shaffer of this city.

Funeral arrangements are not completed.
