

ROSETTA TEEPLE TAKEN BY DEATH

Mrs. Rosetta Teeple Dies This Morning of Paralysis

Mrs. Rosetta Teeple, 84, widow of the late William H. Teeple, died this morning, at 7:15 o'clock at her home in St. Mary's township. Death was attributed to a stroke of paralysis, sustained last Thursday.

The deceased was born in St. Mary's township March 3, 1855, the daughter of Amos and Elizabeth Gulick. She resided in the county practically her entire life. She was a former school teacher, having taught in the rural schools.

The husband preceded her in death two years ago. She was a member of the First Christian church in this city.

Surviving are the following children: William G., of Decatur; John A. and Don Teeple of Fort Wayne; Benjamin of Decatur and Mrs. Mamie Brokhart (sic) at home; a brother, Wilson Gulick of near Decatur and four grandchildren. Morton Teeple of Fort Wayne. Two children preceded her in death.

The body was removed to the Buchanan funeral home at Willshire, Ohio.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Bobo M. E. church and burial will be made in the Mt. Tabor cemetery.

Contributed by Karin King