

News-Sentinel, The (Fort Wayne, IN) - Friday, October 18, 1991

JAMES P. TUMBLESON, 61, of Albion died Wednesday in Miller's Merry Manor, Columbia City. The Adams County native retired after 23 years at International Harvester Co. and was a veteran of the Korean War.

Surviving are his wife, Barbara; daughters, Trudie Ingman of Cromwell and Tricia Spangler and Terri McKnight, both of Fort Wayne; son, Timothy of Albion; sister, Gertrude Swoverland of Ohio; brother, Charles of Willshire, Ohio; and eight grandchildren.

Private services were in Mount Tabor Cemetery, Decatur. Arrangements were by Titus Funeral Home, Warsaw.

Preferred memorials are gifts to United Parkinson Foundation.