Former Resident of South Shannan Street Passes Away at Home in Convoy after Long Illness

W. P. Wherry, a former resident of South Shannan Street, died this morning at his home in Convoy after a lingering illness. Mr. Wherry was for a number of years a resident of Van Wert but for the past several years had made his home at Convoy. He enjoyed a large circle of friends in this town and throughout the county. He was aged about 70 years and is survived by his wife, 2 daughters, Mrs. John Helm of near Decatur, Indiana and Mrs. Helen Densel of Convoy; and four sons, Harry A. Wherry of South Shannan Street, Alpha Wherry of York Township, and Allen and Richard Wherry of Convoy. The funeral will be held Monday at Clark's Chapel, Indiana, southwest of Convoy, the funeral party leaving the Wherry home at 10:00 o'clock. Interment will be made in the church cemetery.
