

The Weekly Sentinel, Allen County, Indiana; July 12, 1916

AUGUSTUS A. BRODBECK DEAD

DECATUR, Ind., July 6 - Augustus A. Brodbeck, a well known farmer of Union township, is dead after an extended illness with cancer of the stomach. An autopsy was held by Drs. Hamilton and Dancer, of Fort Wayne and Drs. Clark, Hoffman, Grandstaff, Smith, Boyers, Miller, Thomas, Costello and J. S. and E. G. Coverdale.

Fort Wayne Journal Gazette, Allen County, Indiana; July 6, 1916

AUGUSTUS A. BRODBECK SUCCUMBS TO CANCER

DECATUR, Ind. July 5 (or 6 - Augustus A. Brodbeck, born November 25, 1859, a prominent farmer of Union township for many years, died at midnight of cancer of the stomach after a long illness and much suffering. The widow and the following children survive: Pearl, Vernon, Chalmer, Marie, Bernice and Nellie all at home. Brothers and sisters are John and William, St. Mary's township; ?ttie Helm, Union township; Sophia Dustman, Wabash county; Mary Brodbeck. Mr. Brodbeck was a member of the Yeoman lodge which will have charge of the funeral. The funeral will be held Friday from the Salem Evangelical church.

An autopsy was held today by Drs. Hamilton and Dancer, of Fort Wayne and Drs. D. D., C. S. Clark, Hoffman, Grandstaff, Smith, Boyers, Miller, Thomas, Costello and J. S. and E. G. Coverdale.

Both contributed by Karin King