

DEATH'S RELIEF

Came to Mrs. George Hindenlang of Union Township This Morning

WAS ILL LONG

Of Bronchial, Heart and Kidney Trouble - Was Forty-four Years Old

A prominent Union Township woman, Ida, wife of George Hindenlang, a farmer residing five miles northeast of Decatur, died this morning at 6:30 o'clock. Mrs. Hindenlang had been ill for a year or so of chronic bronchitis. To this was added heart trouble, and later kidney trouble, causing her case to be very complicated. For the past five weeks she has been worse, and all efforts to relieve her failed to bring the desired cure. A nurse, Mrs. Robbins, has been attending her. A council was held by physicians a week or so ago, but no relief could be afforded. On account of the heart trouble, Mrs. Hindenlang was unable to lie down, and her suffering on various accounts, was very severe.

Mrs. Hindenlang was forty-four years, five months and twenty-seven days of age. She was born December 21, 1869, in Huntington, Indiana, and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Miller.

She was married in young womanhood to George Hindenlang. The heartbroken husband and ten children survive. Two children have preceded their mother in death.

Funeral services for Mrs. Hindenlang will be held Sunday afternoon. The procession will leave the house at one o'clock standard time for the Salem Evangelical church three miles east of the city where the services will be held at 1:45.
