

THE DECATUR NEWS - PROMINENT OHIO MAN DEAD

DECATUR, Ind. May 24 - James Mauller, a very well known citizen of Van Wert county, living at Middlebury, midway between this city and Van Wert, died at his home after an illness of a years duration, death resulting from stomach trouble and other complicated diseases. He was sixty years of age and had been nearly a life long resident of that county. He was a prosperous farmer and was an influential man in his county. He was a member of the Methodist church at Middlebury and was an earnest worker in its behalf. He was a brother of David Mauller, a well known farmer of this county who died two years ago in Union township. The funeral will be held at the Methodist Episcopal church in Middlebury on Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock and interment will be made at the Salem cemetery. He leaves a wife, four daughters and three sons.
