

Union Township Resident Dies of Heart Trouble at Age Of 71 Years

William Spuller, 71, of east of this city, died at the home of his daughter in this city, Saturday evening at 7 o'clock following an illness of heart trouble, and mastoid affliction. Mr. Spuller became ill last December 25 and never recovered his health.

William Spuller was born in Union township, Adams county, October 29, 1855. He was the son of Joseph and Catherine (Walters) Spuller. When a young man, he was married to Mary Anne Cline. To this union were born four children, a son and three daughters. His wife and son preceded him in death.

Three daughters and seven grandchildren besides a host of friends survive to mourn his death.

Funeral services will be held at the William Spuller home east of Decatur Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Rev. Cecil R. Smith, pastor of the Decatur United Brethren church, will have charge. Burial will take place in the Salem cemetery. Decatur Public Library (Adams Co, IN) online obit abstracts.