

Kristi R. H. Eicher was stillborn Saturday evening at Parkview Memorial Hospital, Fort Wayne.

The infant died after her mother, Maggie Eicher was admitted to the hospital following a Friday morning accident at County Roads 90 and 173. Mrs. Eicher was listed in fair condition at the hospital today.

Surviving besides the mother are her father, Menno Eicher; three brothers; grandparents; great-grandparents; and several aunts and uncles.

Graveside services were held today at Bunker Hill Cemetery, west of Geneva.
