

LOVINA J. ZOOK, 83, died Sunday at home. Born in Geneva, she was a homemaker. Her husband, Eli, died in 1982. Surviving are a son, Jacob E. of Bryant; two daughters, Emma Hilty of Geneva and Mary Graber of Seymour, Mo.; a stepdaughter, Katie Graber of Seymour; a stepson, Sam Zook of Seymour; three sisters, Elizabeth Eash, Emma Eash and Tillie Eash, all of Topeka; 15 grandchildren; and 31 step-grandchildren. She was also preceded in death by a daughter, Fannie Zook, and two stepchildren, Noah Zook and Lydia Zook. Services at 9 a.m. Thursday at the Lovina Zook residence, 1101 W., 850 S., Geneva. Calling from noon to 9 p.m. today and 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Wednesday at the residence. Burial in Bunker Hill Cemetery, Geneva. Arrangements by Yager-Kirchhofer Funeral Home, Berne.

Huntington

Journal Gazette, The (Fort Wayne, IN) - Tuesday, December 24, 2002

Contributed by Jane Edson