

Erline M. Bluhm

(February 16, 1917 - June 3, 2007)

Erline M. Bluhm, 90, of Berne, Indiana passed away at 10:15 a.m. Sunday, June 3, 2007 in the Adams Memorial Hospital in Decatur, Indiana.

Erline was born on February 16, 1917 in Adams County, Indiana, the daughter of the late Erwin Stucky and the late Martha (Liechty) Stucky. Erline married Roger Bluhm on May 12, 1935 in Adams County, Indiana and he passed away in 1992.

Erline was member of the St. John United Church of Christ in Vera Cruz, Indiana, where she was a member of the Women's Guild and former church pianist. She was a homemaker, a former employee of Stucky Furniture and Model Hatchery in Monroe, Indiana. Erline enjoyed quilting and crocheting.

Erline is survived by son, Gene (Elaine) Bluhm of Monroe, Indiana; son, John (Sonja) Bluhm of Monroe, Indiana; son, Ben (Sue) Bluhm of Berne, Indiana; daughter-in-law, Barbara (Paul) Lehman of Monroe, Indiana; brother, Earl Stucky of Berne, Indiana; brother, Fern Hanni of Ft. Wayne, Indiana; fourteen grandchildren; and twenty-nine great-grandchildren.

Erline was preceded in death by a son, Garry Bluhm; a brother, Glen Liechty; one grandchild; and one great-grandchild.

Funeral Services will be held at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, June 6, 2007 in the Cross Community Church with the Rev. Randall Luther officiating. Burial will follow in the M.R.E. Cemetery, rural Berne, Indiana.

Visitation will be from 2-8 p.m. Tuesday, June 5, 2007 in the Yager-Kirchhofer Funeral Home, Berne, Indiana and one hour prior to the service at the church on Wednesday.

Preferred memorials are to Crossroads in Ft. Wayne, Indiana.

Yager-Kirchhofer Funeral Home online obit (accessed 5/6/2013)