

Jean A. Bowman

Jean A. Bowman, 80, Monroe, died Monday, June 1, 2015, at Bluffton Regional Medical Center. Jean was born in Adams County Aug. 9, 1934, to the late Earl R. and Elsie M. (Harmon) Haines. On August 1, 1954, she married DeLane S. Bowman; he preceded her in death June 9, 2003.

Jean was a homemaker and also worked for Co-op Lumber in Monroe. She was a graduate of Adams Central High School.

Among survivors are her sons, Kevin D. (Rebecca) Bowman and Dana A. (Linda) Bowman, both of Monroe, and Marlin L. (Karen) Bowman of Decatur; a daughter, Devone K. (Duane) Johnson of Monroe; brother, Doyle H. (Bonnie) Haines of Jackson, Miss.; and two grandchildren, Dane and Danee Bowman.

She was preceded in death by two sisters, Alta Lautzenheiser and Doris Runyon.

Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. Thursday at Haggard-Sefton & Hirschy Funeral Home, with Pastor Troy Green officiating. Burial will be in M.R.E. Cemetery, Berne. Visitation will be from 2-5 and 6-8 p.m. Wednesday also at the funeral home.

Memorials are to Wounded Warriors or Family Life Care-Hospice.

To sign our guest book, click on www.hshfuneralhome.com

Published in Decatur Daily Democrat on June 2, 2015

Contributed by Ginger Runyon Roughia