

The Commercial Review, Portland, Indiana (Jay County) Tuesday, September 25, 2007

Eva M. Dunlap, 92, Lafayette, a Geneva native, died Sunday at Rosewalk Village in Lafayette.

Born on Oct. 19, 1914, in Geneva, to Simon and Sarah (Yoder) Egly, she graduated from Leo High School and attended Lutheran Hospital School of Nursing in Fort Wayne.

She was married in 1935 to Raymond E. Dunlap, who preceded her in death.

Survivors include a daughter, Ann L. Skadberg,, Lafayette; four grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Private family services will be held in Berne at a later date. The family requests no flowers.

Soller-Baker of Lafayette is in charge of the arrangements.