

Commercial Review, The (Portland, IN) - Wednesday, October 19, 2005

Lawrence R. Kile, 64, Coral Springs, Fla., a Portland native, died Saturday in University Hospital in Tamarac, Fla.

Born July 24, 1941, in Portland, to Raymond "Pete" and Violet (Galloway) Kile, he married Esther Bryan on July 16, 1966. She survives.

He served in the U.S. Marine Corps from 1960 to 1964 and was a certified public accountant.

A member of American Legion Post No. 211 in Portland, he was also a member of Calvary Chapel Church in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Other survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Mario (Natasha) Mena, Coconut Creek, Fla.; a sister, Martha Ingle, Dunkirk, and two grandchildren.

Services are Saturday at 10:30 a.m. in the Redeemer Lutheran Church in Bryant with Pastor Michael Potts officiating. Burial will be in the M.R.E. Cemetery in Berne.

Visitation is Friday from 4 to 8 p.m. in the Baird-Freeman Funeral Home.

A memorial service will be held on Nov. 6 at 3 p.m. in the Calvary Chapel Church in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Memorials may be sent to Redeemer Lutheran Church, Hospice, or to the family.