

WIFE OF FRANK MARTZ IS DEAD AT FARM HOME

Funeral Wednesday for Well Known Monroe Township Woman

Mrs. Charity J. Martz, 62, wife of Frank Martz, died at her home in Monroe township, two and one-half miles southeast of Monroe, at 8:00 o'clock this morning. Death was caused by a cerebral hemorrhage, according to the attending physician. She had been ill three weeks and her condition suddenly became worse last night.

Mrs. Martz was well known throughout the community. She was active in church work and both she and her husband were connected with the Adams County Holiness Association.

The deceased was born in Washington township, May 9, 1879, a daughter of John W. and Mary E. Clive Tabler. She was married to Frank Martz on January 24, 1904, at Monroe. They lived on the same farm where Mrs. Martz died ever since their marriage. Mr. Martz is a brother of Mrs. Ellen Hocker of Berne.

Surviving are the husband, who is 74 years of age, and one foster daughter, Leah Lucile Isgrigg, of Fredonia, Kansas. Two brothers, Hayes and Ferd, and a sister Clara are deceased.

Mrs. Martz was a member of the Monroe Friends church and a life long resident of this community.

The funeral will be held Wednesday at 1:15 o'clock at the home and at 2:00 o'clock at the Friends church, Rev. Vernon Riley, her former pastor, officiating, assisted by Mrs. Susie Sproul. Burial will be in the M. R. E. cemetery west of Berne.

The body will be returned to the home from the Yager mortuary and may be viewed after 7:00 this evening.
