

Bluffton News-Banner, Wells County, IN; Tuesday, Oct. 11, 2005

Berne resident Noble K. Moore, 82, died at Lutheran Hospital in Fort Wayne at 2:10 p.m. Monday, Oct. 10.

Born in Greenfield, Mo., Aug. 22, 1923 to Henry and Catherine Moore, he married the former Maxine Flueckiger in Berne Jan. 25, 1957. She survives.

An employee of Howard Sober Inc. in Fort Wayne for 20 years, he later worked 19 years at Schwartz Ford in Decatur.

Additional survivors include three sons, Jeffrey of Bluffton, Steve of Linn Grove and David of Berne; two daughters, Rebecca Moore of Bluffton and Patricia Ann Smith of South Bend; two brothers, Charles and Ralph of Idaho; four sisters, Irene Smith of Missouri, Dorleen Seleska of California and Bonnie Roebery and Linda Sturm, both of Idaho; 11 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

He was predeceased by brothers Harold and Jack.

Services at 10 a.m. Friday will be at Yager-Kirchhofer Funeral Home under the direction of Revs. Keith Rupp and Mark Berg. Burial will follow at M.R.E. Cemetery. Calling at the funeral home will be 1 to 7 p.m. Thursday and one hour prior to services Friday.

Memorials may be made to the donor's choice.

Contributed by treehugger