

Unknown newspaper with handwritten date of Monday, July 13, 1936)

CHRIS MOSSER HEAT VICTIM ON SATURDAY

Native of Hartford Township Overcome at Richmond

FUNERAL HELD THIS AFTERNOON

Christian Mosser, aged 54, formerly a resident of this community, died at the Easthaven hospital at Richmond at 1 o'clock Saturday morning. Mosser was overcome by the heat Friday afternoon while working in a field belonging to the Richmond hospital which is a state institution. Mosser had been in good health previously but the hot sun and torrid heat were too much for him. He collapsed in the field and was hurried to the hospital where he was delirious several hours before his death.

Mosser had been at the hospital for the last nineteen years. He is well remembered by many local people. The deceased was born in Hartford township, a son of Solomon and Elizabeth Schlatter Mosser. He and his family lived in Geneva for many years. He operated a stone quarry at New Corydon at the time he was taken to the hospital at Richmond.

Surviving are the widow, who was formerly Prudentia Soldner, a daughter of the late John Soldner, and four children, Willis, Melvin, Lawrence and Edith, all at home. The family lives in Geneva.

The following brothers and sisters survive: Joel, in Oklahoma; John, in Montana; Noah, Ft. Wayne; Sol, east of Geneva; Mrs. Chris Mertz of west of town and Mrs. Ellen Schlabau, of Ohio.

The funeral was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Geneva U. B. church, burial in the MRE Cemetery west of Berne.