

James E. Mosser, 81, of Decatur, IN, passed away at 6:53 PM on Monday, January 09, 2017 at Genesis Health Care in New Haven, IN. He was born on Sunday, April 14, 1935, in Adams County, IN. He married Shirley A. (Leonard) Mosser on Friday, August 13, 2004 in Evansville, IN. James attended Geneva High School. He worked at Franklin Electric in Bluffton, In. retiring in 1997 after 44 years of service. He attended Cornerstone Church in Decatur, In. He worked at Smith Bros. furniture in Berne, and also Helena Chemical in Berne. He was a member of the masonic lodge # 87 in Jay County, and also #571 in Adams County. He was also a member of the Scottish Rite, and Shrine-Mispah. He was a member of the Franklin Electric quarter century club. He was a member of the hospital unit of the Shriners where he transferred many patients. He also served 50 years on the Geneva Fire Dept.

Loving Survivors Include: Wife - Shirley A. (Leonard) Mosser, Decatur, IN, Son - Alan D. Mosser, Burlington, VT, Daughters - Shirley (David) Hutcheson, Swayzee, IN, Pam (Mike) Smith, Millersburg, IN, Vickie (Ben) Hough, Geneva, IN, Cynthia (Nou) Phouleuanghong, Warsaw, IN, Sister - Beverly Thomas, Monroe, IN, 7 Grandchildren, and several Great Grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his Father - Solomon "Bud" Mosser, Jr., Mother - Lolita (Blocker) Mosser, and Brother - Philip Mosser.

Downing & Glancy Funeral Home online obit (accessed 1/09/2017)