

The Berne Tri-Weekly, Obituaries, 27 Nov 2002

"Bernice I Stuckey, 85, a resident of Swiss village Retirement Community in Berne, passed away Monday, November 25, 2002 at 12:23 a.m. at Swiss Village Nursing care. She was born in Van Nuys, California on November 8, 1917 to Elmer and Hermina (Sprunger) Luginbill. She was married on June 23, 1940 in Berne to the late Maynard Stuckey, who was the owner of Stuckey & Luginbill Painting & Decorating.

"She was a homemaker. She was a former Sunday school teacher and a member of Berne Mothers' Club. She was a member of West Missionary Church, Berne. She enjoyed sewing.

"She is survived by two sons, Randy Stuckey of Crawfordsville, Indiana and John Stuckey of Round Lake, Illinois; one daughter, Mrs. Eric (Debby) Bohnke of Ft. Wayne; seven grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; two brothers, Harry Luginbill of Berne, and Roger Luginbill of Roswell, New Mexico; a sister, Mrs. John (Rowena) Bauman of Roswell, New Mexico.

"She was preceded in death by her husband, Maynard Stuckey, and her brother, Rev. Stan Luginbill.

"Service will be 10:30 a.m., Saturday, November 30th at West Missionary Church with Rev. Keith Rupp officiating.

"Calling hours are Friday a to 2 p.m. at Swiss Village and 4 to 8 p.m. at Yager-Kirchhofer Funeral Home and Saturday, one hour prior to services at the church.

"Burial in MRE Cemetery...."

Contributed by Ghostman