

Naomi E. Stuckey, 89, passed away Saturday, June 5, 2004 at 7:35am at the Woodcrest Nursing Center, Decatur, IN. She was born July 5, 1914 to Freeman Walters and Belle (Barkley) Walters in Adams County, Indiana. She later married Elmo E. Stuckey on December 24, 1935. (He died March 5, 1988.)

Naomi was a Homemaker and a Bookkeeper at the Adams County Co-Op where she worked for 15 years. She was a member of the Monroe United Methodist Church, the United Methodist Women and Builders Sunday School Class, she was a Past Worthy Matro and 50 year member of the Decatur Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star, the Crescent Chapter #48 of the Order of the Eastern Star, the Teti Sheri Temple #60 Daughter of the Nile, the Adams County Chapter of the Daughters of the Nile and the Happy Homemaker Demonstration Club.

She is survived by Her 2 Sons, Ronald L. Stuckey, Monroe, IN and William B. Stuckey, Decatur, IN; 1 Sister, Phyllis Everett, Monroe, In; 4 Grandchildren and 2 Great-Grandchildren.

Mrs. Stuckey was preceded in death by 1 Brother, Orley Walters and 2 Sisters, Genevieve Parrish and Anoli Mann.

Visitation is 2-4 and 6-8pm Tuesday, June 8, 2004 at Haggard and Sefton Funeral Home, Decatur, IN. Funeral Service is at 10:00am Wednesday, June 9, 2004 at the Monroe United Methodist Church, Monroe, IN with 1 hour visitation prior to service. Rev. Don Wilks officiating. Burial at the MRE Cemetery, Berne, IN.

All memorials will be donated to the Monroe United Methodist Church or to the Shriners Children's Hospital.

Haggard-Sefton & Hirschy Funeral Home online obit (accessed 6/29/2015)