

Raymond E. Black

Raymond, 86, rural Geneva, died at Lutheran Hospital.

He was a son of Noah and Matilda (Stoll) Black. On Sep 22, 1939, in Chattanooga, he married Kathryn "Kate" Carr, who survives.

Also surviving are a daughter, Connie (Danny) Smuts, Geneva; a brother, LeRoy, Celina, OH; five grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; and one great-great-grandchild.

Deceased is a daughter, Patricia Brewster.

A retired farmer, he was also a school bus driver for 27 years for South Adams Schools. He attended the New Corydon United Methodist Church.

Services were at Downing Funeral Home in Geneva with Pastor Dan Perry officiating.

Contributed by Mike Dearbaugh (no source listed)