

Friday, July 24, 1942

John A. Miller Dies on Thursday

Funeral Saturday for Father of Mrs. Russel Steiner

John A. Miller, 68, prominent retired farmer and a native of Geneva, died at 12:22 o'clock Thursday morning at the Jay County Hospital at Portland where he had been a patient since June 26. Mr. Miller, a lifelong resident of Adams and Wells Counties, suffered an infection of the gall bladder. He had been in good health before.

Mr. Miller was born at Geneva March 31, 1874, a son of Henry and Martha Boehm Miller. He was married to Addie Macklin on January 18, 1895.

Surviving are the widow and two daughters, Mrs. Russel Steiner of Geneva and Mary Ruth, at home and two grandchildren, Marilyn Jo and Griff Kay Steiner.

The following brothers and sisters survive: Vernon and Howard Miller and Mrs. William Mann, all of near Geneva; Barney Miller of Bryant; Mrs. Katie Counterman of Celina and Mrs. Dan Roop, of Monroe.

The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at the Macklin Methodist Church, Rev. C. W. Anderson officiating. Burial will be in Riverside Cemetery.

Adams County Historical Museum

1942A Scrapbook, image 84

Transcribed by Jim Cox