LEVI D. MILLER DIES SUDDENLY

Former Decatur Resident Dies At Home Near Geneva This Morning

(Special to Daily Democrat)

Geneva, Feb. 3 - Levi D. Miller, 75, died suddenly at his home in Bearcreek township, Jay county, two miles south of here, at 7 o'clock this morning. Death was due to heart trouble. Mr. Miller was seized with a heart attack last Wednesday night, but had recovered. He ate a hearty breakfast this morning and then told his wife that he was going to feed the chickens. He sat down in a chair to put on his overshoes and fell over dead.

Mr. Miller was born near Linn Grove, December 8, 1875. He sold his farm near Linn Grove about 16 years ago and moved to Decatur, where he resided for about a year. He then moved to Geneva and about 12 years ago he moved to Bearcreek township, Jay county, where he resided at the time of his death.

Surviving are the widow, one son, Milton, at home, and one sister, Mrs. Catherine Lindsey, of Linn Grove. Funeral services will be held from the United Brethren church here Friday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, the Rev. Mr. Knipe officiating. Burial will be made in the Riverside cemetery.
