

Decatur Daily Democrat, Adams County, IN; Thursday, November 20, 2008

William Henry "Bill" Rumble, 70, of Decatur, a former Adams County Commissioner, passed away on Thursday November 20, 2008, at his residence.

Bill was born in Portland, Indiana, on December 16, 1937 to Henry I. and Laura M. (Darrah) Rumble. He married Delores J. Weber on May 4, 1968.

Bill is survived by his wife, Delores J. Rumble of Decatur; two sons, Paul Rumble, and wife Jennifer, and Tim Rumble, both of Decatur; twin grandsons, Grant and Cash Rumble of Decatur; and three sisters, Mrs. Bill (Susan) Winstandley of Dayton, Ohio; Patsy Worrell of Durham, North Carolina; and Mrs. Steve (Helen) Bako of Tampa, Florida.

He was preceded in death by his parents; one son, James R. Rumble on April 13, 2008; and one brother, John Rumble in 2000.

Bill was a self-employed farmer. He served his country in the United States Army Reserves and was also a graduate of Purdue University in 1960 and a member of the Purdue Ag Alumni.

He was an Adams County Commissioner from 1984-88, plus a Kirkland Township Democratic precinct committeeman and a member of the Adams County Board of Zoning Appeals, the Adams County Farm Bureau Board, and the Preble Roundtable. Visitation will be on Monday November 24, from 2-8 p.m. at Haggard and Sefton Funeral Home, Decatur.

Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. on Tuesday November 25, at Haggard and Sefton Funeral Home, with Rev. Jay Carter officiating. Burial will be in Riverside Cemetery at Geneva, Indiana.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Jim Rumble Scholarship Fund or to the Preble Fire Department.
