

Journal Gazette, The (Fort Wayne, IN) - Wednesday, January 14, 1998

Geneva - CHARLOTTE SOMMER JONES, 102, died Monday at Rosewood Terrace, Elkhart. Born in Elwood, she formerly lived in Geneva. She was an adult caregiver in Elkhart and Geneva, and worked at General Electric Co. in Fort Wayne for three years. She also worked at Standard Brush and Broom in Portland. Surviving are a son, the Rev. Eugene C. Sommer of LaGrange; a daughter, Irene Shoemaker of Logansport; three stepsons, Lawrence Jones, Gene Jones and Carl Jones; four grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; and numerous step-great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her first husband, Christian Sommer, in 1960; her second husband, Homer Brown; her third husband, LeRoy O. Jones, in 1982; and a daughter, Pearl Harshbarger.

Services at 10 a.m. Friday at LaGrange Church of the Nazarene, LaGrange. Calling from 2 to 4 and 6 to 8 p.m. Thursday at Walley-Mills-Zimmerman Funeral Home, Elkhart. Graveside services at 3 p.m. Friday at Riverside Cemetery, Geneva. Memorials to Compassionate Ministries, c/o any Church of the Nazarene.