VINTON RAY IS TAKEN BY DEATH

Man Injured in Freak Accident May 13, Dies This Morning

Vinton "Skippy" Ray, 41, of Dixon, Ohio, died this morning at 8:25 o'clock at the Adams county memorial hospital.

Death was attributed indirectly to an injury sustained in a freak accident, on May 13. On that day Mr. Ray suffered a severe skull fracture when a truck tire blew out and the rim struck him on the head.

He was confined in the hospital here for several weeks in a critical condition, but apparently recovered and was released. Last Tuesday he became ill when he suffered from exposure in a rainstorm. He was readmitted to the hospital. The attending physician attributed death to chronic encephalitis known as sleeping sickness.

The deceased was born in Geneva, Oct. 2, 1899, the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Ray, who still reside there. Surviving also are the widow, Pearl Hendricks-Ray, the children, George, Chester and Geraldine; three brothers, Clyde of Convoy, Ohio; Jude of Eaton and Marion of Muncie; and two sisters, Mrs. Margaret Lough of Geneva and Mrs. Helen Passwater of Fort Wayne.

Funeral services will be held at the home near Dixon Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Simon officiating. Burial will be in the Studabaker cemetery near Geneva.
