

Journal Gazette, The (Fort Wayne, IN) - Thursday, November 15, 2007

THOMAS N. DULL, 67, of Geneva, died Tuesday, Nov. 13, 2007, 6:07 p.m., at Lutheran Hospital. Born April 12, 1940, in Adams County, he was the son of Helen (Moser) and the late George Harvey Dull. He married Linda Shappell on March 27, 2006; she survives.

He was a former officer for the U.S. Army and member of Portland Moose Lodge, Portland F.O.E., Berne American Legion Post 468, and Geneva Proud. He was engaged in farming; was a former employee of Home Dairy and B & K Sporting Goods; lifelong sports enthusiast; high school basketball official; and former coach of First Bank of Berne Lancers.

Also surviving are sons, Tom Dull and Ron (Celia) Dull, both of Berne, and Michael (Rona) Dull of Cicero; daughter, Rhonda (Shane) Reynolds of Decatur; son, Christopher (Courtney) Dull of Decatur; stepson, Joel Shappell of Chicago, Ill.; stepdaughter, Stephanie (Nick) Katish of Crown Point, Ind.; two brothers, Merril (Phyllis) Dull of Fort Wayne and Robert (Nancy) Dull of Geneva; and 19 grandchildren.

Funeral service is 10:30 a.m. Saturday at First Missionary Church, Berne, with visitation one hour prior. Pastor James Schwartz officiating. Visitation also from 1 to 8 p.m. Friday at Yager- Kirchofer Funeral Home, Berne. Burial in Westlawn Cemetery, Geneva, with graveside military rites by Berne American Legion Post 469.