The deceased was brought to the hospital from her home in Geneva Friday afternoon. The malady from which she suffered had been one of long standing and at former times she underwent operations in the hope of obtaining relief.

Mrs. Hale was the wife of William B. Hale; assistant cashier of the bank at Geneva, and is survived by the husband, and two small children. The remains were sent to Geneva yesterday by J. C. Peiltier and the funeral services will be conducted from the family home in the place.
