

He [Jerry Kinsley] was born in Marion to the late Arthur and Geneva Kinsey. He was employed for 17 years at Thomson Consumer Electronics in Marion as a truck driver, and was currently employed by Brankle Brothers Express as a truck driver. He loved driving and was a NASCAR fan. In his younger years, he enjoyed racing, fishing, and going to the lakes. He enjoyed spending time with his family. He also was a member of the Teamsters No. 135 and was an Army veteran.

Survivors include his wife, Pam (Dixon) Kinsey; two sons, Travis (Nicole) Kinsey and Jerry Kinsey Jr., both of Marion; two daughters, Kim Binkerhoff, Portland, and Barbie (Kenny) Hall, Silver Lake; a step daughter, Cathy (Mark) Turner, Marion; two brothers, Emerson Royse Jr. and Larry (Francis) Royse, both of Marion; four grandchildren; and two step grandchildren.

He also was preceded in death by a brother, Gary.

Contributed by Tombstoner & family - no source listed