

Decatur Daily Democrat (IN) - Tuesday, April 7, 2009

Margie C. Sweeney, 77, of Fort Wayne, died Monday in Parkview Hospital at Fort Wayne. She was born in Decatur to Walter D. and Thelma B. Branstetter Tester. Among survivors is a son, Michael Sweeney of Fort Wayne.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. Friday in Downing and Glancy Funeral Home, Geneva, with burial in West Lawn Cemetery, Geneva. Visiting hours are 2-8 p.m. Thursday.

MARGIE C. SWEENEY, 77, of Fort Wayne, died Monday, April 6, 2009, 9:55 a.m., at Parkview Hospital, Fort Wayne, following an extended illness. Born Saturday, Oct. 24, 1931, in Decatur, she was the daughter of the late Walter D. Tester and Thelma B. (Branstetter) Tester. She worked for the state of Indiana for 32 years and retired from the Salvation Army after several years of service. She enjoyed playing the piano, organ, and singing. She attended the Salvation Army Church.

Surviving are her son, Michael Sweeney of Fort Wayne; brothers, Bill Tester of Garrett and Jerry Tester of California. She was also preceded in death by her sister, Karen K. Tester.

Funeral service is 11 a.m. Friday at Downing & Glancy Funeral Home, 100 N. Washington St., Geneva. Major Mark Turner officiating. Family will receive friends from 2 to 8 p.m. Thursday at the funeral home. Interment in West Lawn Cemetery, Geneva, Ind. Memorials to the Salvation Army. Arrangements by Downing & Glancy Funeral Home. Online condolences may be sent to www.glancyfuneralhomes.com.

Published in Fort Wayne Newspapers on Apr. 8, 2009.

Contributed by sibe80