

News-Sentinel, The (Fort Wayne, IN) - Thursday, August 1, 1991

ANNA MARY TYSON, 77, of Bryant died yesterday in Lutheran Hospital.

She formerly owned a trailer park in Indianapolis and was the widow of Iris, who died in 1981.

Surviving are daughters, Patricia Turner of Saginaw, Mich., Janet Roll of Decatur, Judith Schmidt of Ontario, Canada, Jeannine Amstutz of Fort Wayne and Diane Schmidt of Bryant; sons, James of Cheyenne, Wyo., and Ronald of California; sisters, Gladys Barlow of Lakeland, Fla., Marjorie Ginsberg of Kernville, Calif., and Virginia Carpenter of Auburn, Wash.; 29 grandchildren; and 29 great-grandchildren.

Services are 10 a.m. Saturday in Downing Funeral Home, Geneva, where calling is 2 to 9 p.m. tomorrow, and 9 to 10 a.m. Saturday. Burial will be in Westlawn Cemetery.

Preferred memorials are gifts to the Indiana-Ohio Heart Transplant Network.