

Donald E. (Butch) Wolverton, 61, 300 S. Main St., Geneva, died Thursday at the VA Hospital, Indianapolis.

Born Feb. 23, 1918 in New Haven, he was the son of Herbert O. and Mary Jane (Butcher) Wolverton. He was married Oct. 1, 1961 to Thelma L. Miller, who survives. A veteran of World War II, Wolverton was a resident of Adams County most of his life.

Surviving besides his wife are one sister, Mrs. Dale (Ruth) Parr, Geneva; two stepsons, Russell D. Gates and James D. Gates, both of Portland; two step daughters, Mrs. Bonnie F. Galloway, Texas City, Tex., and Mrs. Anita C. Rose, Anderson; and eight grandchildren.

Services are set for 1:30 pm Sunday at the Downing Funeral Home, Geneva, with Rev. Charles Clark officiating. Burial will follow in the West Lawn Cemetery.

Commercial Review, Portland, IN; March 16, 1980

Contributed by Jim Cox