

Death Claims Decatur Lady

Mrs. Jane Frisinger Dies At 11:30 o'Clock This Morning At Her Home

Mrs. Mary Jane Frisinger, 66, lifelong resident of this city and widow of the late John Frisinger died at 11:20 o'clock this morning at her home on West Jackson street. Death was due to complications.

Mrs. Frisinger has spent her entire life in Adams County and was one of the best known women in this community. She has been in failing health for some time, but has kept up with active life here.

Five weeks ago she contracted a severe case of influenza from which she never recovered. Her death occurred (sic) this morning from complications resulting from her recent illness.

Mrs. Frisinger was born in Adams County, March 10, 1863, the daughter of Isaac and Sarah Peterson. In 1881 she was united in marriage to John M. Frisinger who preceded her in death nine years. To this union were born six children, all of whom survive. They are M. A. Frisinger of this city; Mrs. R. C. Gipe, of Alexandria; J. F. Frisinger, of Gary; Mrs. J. Dwight Peterson, of Indianapolis; Mrs. George Myers of Palo Alto, California, and Richard Frisinger of Indianapolis. Five grandchildren also survive.

Mrs. Frisinger was a devoted member of the Evangelical church of this city all her life.

The remains have been taken to the home of M. A. Frisinger on North Third Street from whose home the funeral will be held. Burial will be made in the Decatur cemetery.

Funeral services will be held Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the home of M. A. Frisinger on North Third street.
