

MAYNARD FRISINGER IS TAKEN BY DEATH

Former Postmaster Dies Here Tuesday

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon for Maynard (Dyke) Frisinger, 69, former Decatur postmaster and retired city mail carrier, who died Tuesday afternoon at the Adams county memorial hospital. He has been seriously ill for more than two months.

Mr. Frisinger was appointed as postmaster of the Decatur office June 11, 1906, and served until the appointment of W. A. Lower Jun 14, 1910. He was the youngest man ever appointed postmaster of an office the size of Decatur.

He was a substitute carrier in Natchez, Miss., until 1922, and was appointed a substitute carried in Decatur June 4, 1923. He served as a city carrier in Decatur until his retirement Nov. 30, 1950.

Mr. Frisinger was an active member of the First Presbyterian church, serving as an elder for many years. Fraternally, he was a member of the Masonic lodge.

Born in St. Mary's township, near Decatur, Dec. 22, 1883, he was a son of John and Jane Peterson-Frisinger. His father was a prominent horse buyer and stock farmer. Mr. Frisinger was married to Alma Dailey Oct. 30, 1907.

Surviving in addition to his wife are a son, Robert D. Frisinger, assistant Decatur postmaster; two daughters, Mrs. William Gay of Stanton, Mich., and Mrs. Robert Helsler, of Lima, O; five grandchildren; two brothers, J. F. Frisinger of North Webster, and Richard Frisinger of Greenfield, and two sisters, Mrs. J. Dwight Peterson of Indianapolis, and Mrs. George Myers of Palo Alto, Calif. One sister preceded him in death.

Services will be conducted at 2:30 p.m. Friday at the Zwick funeral home, the Rev. Ray S. Walther officiating. Burial will be in the Decatur cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home after 2 p.m. Thursday until time of the services.
