

Gage

Decatur, Oct. 29 – Mrs. Charles Gage, 53, died Wednesday evening of complication at her home in Monmouth. She was born in Root Township February 14, 1883, a daughter of Daniel and Sara Jane Kitson.

She was married March 1, 1906.

Surviving are the husband, a daughter, Mrs. Harold Owens, Monmouth; a step-daughter, Mary Gage Moses, New York City; one sister, Mrs. Charles Johnson of Decatur, Route 1; three brothers, William Kitson of Route 3, Charles Kitson of Decatur and Earl Kitson, Miles City, Mont.; a half-brother, Frank Kitson, Root Township and a half-sister, Mrs. Clarence Cornthwaite, Springfield, Ill.

Funeral services will be held at the home at 1:30 pm Saturday and at 2 o'clock at the Decatur M. E. Church. Burial in the Decatur Cemetery.

Journal-Gazette, Allen County, IN; October 30, 1936, Page 10

Mrs. Charles Gage Dies Wednesday At Home In Monmouth

Mrs. Gertrude Kitson Gage, 53, died at 7:05 o'clock Wednesday evening at her home in Monmouth. Death was due to complications.

The deceased was born in Root township, February 14, 1883, a daughter of Daniel and Sara Jane Purdy Kitson. She was married to Charles Gage March 1, 1906, and resided in North Dakota for the following 11 years. With that exception she spent her entire life in Adams county. She was a member of the Decatur Methodist Episcopal church.

Surviving besides the husband, Charles Gage, are a daughter, Mrs. Irma Owens, at home, and a step-daughter, Mary Gage Moses of New York City. A daughter Louise preceded her mother in death five years ago. Two grandchildren also survive, together with a sister, Mrs. Charles Johnson of route 1; three brothers, William Kitson of route 3, Charles Kitson of Decatur and Earl Kitson of Miles City, Montana; a half-brother, Frank Kitson of Root township, and a half-sister, Mrs. Clarence Cornthwaite of Springfield, Illinois.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 1:30 at the residence in Monmouth and 2 o'clock at the M. E. church in Decatur. Burial will be in the Decatur cemetery.

The body will be returned from the Black funeral home this afternoon and may be viewed by friends and relatives after 4 o'clock.

Decatur Daily Democrat, Adams County, Indiana; Thursday, Oct. 29, 1936