

LOUISE GAGE DIES SUNDAY

Well-Known Local Girl Dies Following Illness of Two Weeks

Miss Louise Charlotte Gage, 18, well-known beauty parlor operator died at 11:15 o'clock Sunday night at the Adams County Memorial Hospital of complications following an operation she underwent, Sunday. Miss Gage became ill about 2 weeks ago, and on Thursday, October 15, she underwent an operation. A second operation was performed Sunday, from which she never recovered.

Miss Gage has been a beauty parlor operator for the past year, having been at the O. K. Beauty shop for the last 3 months. She was graduated from Decatur High school in 1930, and a year ago was graduated from the Betty Jean School of Beauty Culture at Fort Wayne. She was a member of the First Presbyterian church of this city.

She was born in Decatur, December 12, 1912, the daughter of Charles H. and Gertrude Kitson Gage. She spent the greater part of her life at Monmouth, where her family has resided since 1915. Prior to that time they resided at Mott, North Dakota. Surviving are the parents, and a sister, Erma, at home; a half sister, Mary Gage Moses of New York City, and a step-grandmother, Mrs. Dan Kitson of this city.

The body was removed to the S.E. Black Funeral Parlors, and will be taken to the home in Monmouth at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the home and at 2 o'clock at the Presbyterian church. Rev. H. H. Fernthell, pastor, will officiate and will be assisted by Rev. B. H. Franklin, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. Burial will be in the Decatur cemetery.

Contributed by Karin King