

Mrs. Minnie Gage Is Taken By Death

Mrs. Minnie Gage, 87, of 338 Line street, widow of George A. Gage, died at 7:30 p.m. Saturday at the Berne nursing home following an illness of six months of complications.

She was born in Monroe May 21, 1875, a daughter of Jonathan and Druscilla Engle-Burkhead, and was a lifelong resident of Adams county. She was married in 1895 to George A. Gage, who preceded her in death in 1953.

Surviving are two grandchildren; two great-grandchildren, and three sisters, Mrs. Belle Hocker of Monroe, Mrs. Lola Parrish of Mongo, and Mrs. Sarah Gould of Decatur. One daughter, Mrs. Charles Burke, died in 1959. Also deceased are two brothers, J. N. Burkhead, and one who died in infancy, and a sister, Mrs. George Heddington.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Friday at the Winteregg-Linn funeral home, the Rev. Charles M. Hill officiating. Burial will be in the Decatur Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home after 2 p.m. Thursday until time of the services.