Veteran G. E. Employee Dies At Hospital This Morning

Lawrence Dewey Gallogly, 42, well known Decatur resident and veteran General Electric employee, died this morning at 3:05 o'clock at the Adams county memorial hospital.

Death was attributed to carcinoma. He had been in failing health for three years but did not become ill until last Saturday when he was admitted to the hospital.

The deceased was born at Ceylon, July 30, 1898, the son of Thomas and Mary Gallogly. He had lived in Decatur since his childhood. He had been employed by the local General Electric plant for the past 20 years and attended the First Evangelical church.

Surviving besides the widow, are the following children: Mrs. Carl Noll, of Decatur; Dore, Betty, Lawrence, and Stanley, all at home; a brother, Melvin of Decatur; a step-brother, Glen Barkley of Marion, and two sisters, Mrs. Charles David of Fort Wayne and Mrs. Elmer Sark of Bartlesville, Oklahoma.

Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the home, 909 Line street, and 2 o'clock at the First Evangelical church with Rev. George S. Lozier officiating. Burial will be in the Decatur cemetery.

The body was returned to the residence from the S. E. Black funeral home this afternoon and may be viewed there after 7 o'clock this evening until time for the funeral.
