

Decatur Daily Democrat, Adams County, Indiana; Thursday, Feb. 26, 1931

FORMER DECATUR RESIDENT DIES

Lawrence Garard, 35, Dies At Mother's Home in Fort Wayne

Lawrence Garard, 36, (sic) former Decatur young man, died at the home of his mother, Mrs. Mary Garard, 704 High street, Fort Wayne, this afternoon, according to word received by relatives here. Death was caused by flu and pneumonia and followed an illness of a week.

Mr. Garard was at one time employed as a press feeder at the Daily Democrat office, and lived in this city until his parents moved to Fort Wayne about 12 years ago. He was a member of Company "A" of Decatur in the World War. His father, Albert Garard, died a few years after moving to Fort Wayne.

Surviving are the mother, and the following brothers and sisters; Mrs. Grace Dunifon of Van Wert, Ohio; Mrs. Anna Mullincup, at home; Miss Mary Alberta Garard at home; Dorsey Garard of Sturgis, Michigan; Ben, Miss Lily and Charles Garard, all of Fort Wayne. Robert Garard of this city is a cousin of the deceased.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

Contributed by Karin King