

Dallas Morning News, the (TX) - May 6, 2005

GATTSHALL, DR. GERALD WALTER, 66, of Indianapolis, Indiana, and a former Dallas area resident, passed away at 10:15 a.m. on Sunday, May 1, 2005 in the Willow Bend Living Center, located in Muncie, Indiana following an extended illness. Dr. Gattshall was a former professor at East Texas State University in Commerce and established a private practice in North Dallas for several years. He also operated an Arabian horse breeding and sales facility for several years. Surviving are three sons, Greg (Kim) Wilson of Greenwood, Indiana; Scott (Joy) Gattshall of Gainesville, Florida; and Rick (Kirsten) Coeur of San Francisco, California; one daughter, Mrs. Ron (Kristi) Perry of Frisco, Texas; seven grandchildren; Joshua (Becca) Wilson, Christopher Wilson, Brittney Wilson, Amanda Gattshall, Samantha Gattshall, Noah Perry and Ben Perry and great-grandson. Tyler Wilson. Funeral services were held at 11:00 a.m. Thursday, May 5, 2005 in the Zwick & Jahn Funeral Home, Decatur Indiana with burial in the Decatur Cemetery. Preferred memorials are to your local humane society. ZWICK & JAHN FUNERAL HOME 520 N. 2nd St. Decatur, IN 46733 260-724-9164