

Fort Wayne News, Allen County, Indiana; November 26, 1912

Joseph Grim, a retired farmer, over eighty years old, died here today from senility at the home of his son, on a farm three miles from this city. He has several children in this city surviving him. The funeral will be held in Decatur and the burial will be in the Decatur cemetery some time Tuesday.

Contributed by Karin King